Altra's CIO Josh Hamit Inducted into Infosec Institute 2021 Hall of Fame

Infosec, a leading cybersecurity education company, announced four inductees into the 2021 Infosec Hall of Fame. Established in 2020 to recognize and celebrate the professional successes and industry leadership of Infosec Skills boot camp alumni, the Infosec Hall of Fame committees selects top inductees from 100s of nominations each year.

"We're excited to recognize our Infosec alumni who have gone above and beyond to advance the industry and help others along the way," said Jack Koziol, CEO and founder of Infosec. "Now more than ever it's critical that cyber professionals share their knowledge and rethink how we approach cybersecurity's biggest challenges. Infosec is proud to be part of this journey for these individuals and can't wait to see what they achieve going forward."

Hall of Fame inductees were selected based on their career successes and contributions to the cybersecurity industry, as well as their future career plans.

The 2021 Infosec Hall of Fame inductees are:

- Sal Salisbury, Federal Modern Work Solutions Specialist, Microsoft
- Lili-Ann Mitchell, Global Head of Security, Bombardier Recreational Products (BRP) and President, Consultation Lili-Ann Mitchell Inc.

- Jayce Hill, Principal Software Engineer, Microsoft
- Josh Hamit, CIO, Altra Federal Credit Union

Hall of Fame inductees will be recognized during the Inspire Awards ceremony held on October 19, 2021, during the Infosec Inspire User Conference. The only virtual event of its kind, Inspire is hyper-focused on building a culture of security — equipping cybersecurity leaders with knowledge and insights to develop employee cyber skills, strengthen security awareness and make a lasting impact.
